Abandoned Cars Found, No Trace of 2 Drivers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Authorities have an alert out for two persons missing in separate parts of Minnesota — both after their abandoned cars were found.

Mrs. Aline Worden, 25, of Golden Valley in suburban Minneapolis, has been missing since Thursday morning. Her car was found at a scenic overlook on Highway 8 at Taylor's Falls near the St. Croix River.

Belongings were found undisturbed in the car, and there were no signs of foul play. Chicago County Sheriff Vern Martinson said Sunday the search had been called off, inasmuch as a thorough search Saturday failed to turn up any clues.

A friend quoted her as having said Wednesday night she planned to take some scenic photographs the next day. Mrs. Worden is the wife of a Minneapolis attorney, Rolfe A. Worden.

In southwestern Minnesota, officers have been looking for Gilbert Friesen, 25, Marshall. Missing since last Monday, a car traced to him was found near Lake Shetek, nine miles north of Slayton.

Foot tracks went to a resort by the lake, but none led away from it.

Transit Strike Talks Run All Night in N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP) — Marathon negotiations to end the city's 10-day-old bus and subway strike recessed at City Hall just before dawn today, and the chief union bargainer said they had been "completely unproductive and meaningless."

Even as the weary negotiators were leaving, the rumble of converging traffic was building in Manhattan's canyons. City officials said the commuting millions, with a week's bitter experience behind them, had started earlier on this second week of the strike.

Mayor John V. Lindsay, who had summoned the parties to City Hall late Sunday, signaled the recess when he walked from the hall into freezing temperatures at 6:20 a.m., declaring: "The mediation panel has declared a recess."

He declined further comment, and indicated he would have a statement some time after noon.

Moments later, Lindsay was followed by Douglas L. MacMahon, heading the union bargaining team in the absence of the union President, Michael J. Quill who was sent to jail for contempt of court but hospitalized two hours after being locked up.

MacMahon said the Transit Authority had made "no meaningful offer," and that "the mayor sat in on some of these meetings but he didn't seem to prove a help."

MacMahon said Lindsay had mentioned a $50-million figure that would cover all Transit Authority supervisory and union employees and "everyone else." MacMahon rejected it, saying he was bargaining only for hourly paid transit workers.

Previously, the authority had offered a $29-million package, and the union's scaled-down demands stood at $216 million.

The recess ended a bargaining session that started Sunday morning at the Hotel Americana and moved to City Hall late in the afternoon.

Thus, the strike continued with these developments:

—Low temperatures piled added misery upon tens of thousands of commuters forced to walk the windswept bridges into Manhattan.

—Traffic experts invoked new emergency rules to speed the flow of nearly 800,000 cars, a street-choking mess.

—The Transport Workers Union called for a mass picketing demonstration at City Hall.

—Shopkeepers in crisis surged on small-business loan centers authorized by President Johnson.

—Leaders in Harlem and other poverty areas organized car pools to transport workers unable to pay cab fares.

—The Transit Authority resumed its court effort to collect $322,000 a day in damages from the union.

In an extraordinary move, Lindsay moved the negotiations late Sunday afternoon from their midtown hotel site to City Hall. He stressed that the move did not mean that an immediate settlement was in the wind.

The new traffic emergency measures include more parking facilities and the reversing of bridge and tunnel lanes to cope with the crush during the morning rush hour into Manhattan.

Will Withdraw Troops

India and Pakistan Accept Peace Plan

TASHKENT, U.S.S.R. (AP) — The leaders of India and Pakistan agreed today to withdraw troops from along their inflamed frontier and work for "normal and peaceful" relations once more.

Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri of India and President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan sidestepped their quarrel over Kashmir and other major issues that have taken them to war twice in 17 years but signed a nine-point "Tashkent Declaration" aimed at lessening tension.

The declaration represented a diplomatic victory for their host, Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, who worked far into Sunday night to persuade his guests to end their week-long conference on a positive note even if they couldn't agree on any major issues.

The troop withdrawal is to take place before Feb. 25, with units on both sides pulling back to positions held prior to Aug. 5.

India claims that on Aug. 5 Pakistan started sending infiltrators into the section of Kashmir held by India, starting fighting that led up to the three-week war in September.

Future relations between India and Pakistan "shall be based on the principle of noninterference in the internal affairs of each other," the declaration said.

Ayub and Shastri also agreed to discourage propaganda against each other's country and exchange high commissioners again, returning diplomatic relations to normal.

The declaration said the two leaders realized that the interests of their people "were not served by continued tension." But it made clear that the chief cause of tension, the dispute over Kashmir, had not been solved.

The declaration said they had discussed Kashmir and "each side set forth its position."

Shastri and Ayub also agreed to consider measures to restore economic, trade and cultural relations and communications severed by them in September. They also agreed to repatriate prisoners captured in the war.

Along with sidestepping Kashmir, which Pakistan demanded be negotiated, Ayub and Shastri also avoided mention of the Indian proposal of a no-war pact.

The declaration said the two leaders "reaffirm their obligation under the (United Nations) Charter not to have recourse to force and to settle their disputes through peaceful means."

Ayub had refused to sign a no-war pact unless the Kashmir issue was solved.

Even wringing a joint statement from the two leaders was a success of sorts. Until Sunday night, there was no agreement on wording of a statement, and both the Indian and Pakistani delegations were talking of going home without issuing any.

Both sides, however, openly desired to give Kosygin something tangible to show from the first conference of South Asian leaders on Soviet soil.

Pravda indicated that Kosygin had abandoned Soviet support of India in the Kashmir dispute and was trying to obtain Indian concessions on the chief issue dividing the two countries of the Asian subcontinent.

'Iron Triangle' Hit By Big Allied Force

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The largest U.S. fighting force of the Vietnamese war demolished a honeycomb of Viet Cong fortifications on the edge of the Iron Triangle 25 miles northwest of Saigon today, but the Communists ducked the knockout punch.

Most of the guerrillas kept away from the U.S. and Australian troops as they scorched the Communist stronghold on the third day of Operation Crimp.

Australians operating with the 1st Infantry Division and the 173rd Airborne Brigade uncovered a big weapons cache left by the fleeing Communists. The haul included 47 weapons; five of them crew-size, 114 grenades, 15,000 rounds of small-arms ammunition, 58 heavy-mortar rounds, 100 pounds of dynamite, 20 tons of rice and a large store of medical supplies.

There were more than 8,000 men in the Allied force, but U.S. military spokesmen reported only light contact with the enemy, a regiment-sized force thought to be holed up in the 12 square miles of jungle and marshland.

The spokesman reported 22 Viet Cong killed, 38 captured and 289 suspects, mostly women and children detained. Allied casualties were light, they said.

Elsewhere on the ground, U.S. spokesmen reported few contacts with the enemy. But the air war in the South continued unabated with 281 strike missions against Viet Cong targets by Air Force and carrier planes. Four U.S. planes were lost in the past 24 hours.

A Marine F4B Phantom jet crashed 15 miles southwest of Da Nang because of undetermined causes. The two crewmen bailed out and were picked up by helicopter. One man was wounded.

A C123 transport carrying fuel caught fire Sunday night after landing at Tay Ninh, 55 miles northwest of Saigon. The crew escaped unhurt but the plane was destroyed.

Another cargo plane, a C130 Hercules, crashed while landing on a mail run Sunday to An Khe, 260 miles northeast of Saigon. The crewmen were uninjured and the soldiers' mail was saved. A single-seat Air Force plane crashed 5 miles north of Saigon. As a helicopter lifted out the pilot by his gun belt, it broke and he plunged into a river. Apparently he was killed.

Spokesmen confirmed that ground fire had been responsible for two explosions that ripped apart a C130 loaded with 11,000 pounds of ammunition on a flight to Pleiku last Friday. Five men were killed in the crash of the four-engine plane.

The suspension of bombing raids on the Communist North continued into the 18th day.

Some of the tunnels and caves blasted by the U.S. and Australian troops in Operation Crimp dated back to the French Indochina fighting.

The fireman was wearing oxygen equipment, but his face mask was askew when the body was discovered.

An autopsy Sunday attributed death to asphyxiation by smoke inhalation.

The building was two blocks west of Capitol Square in downtown Madison. Sixteen girls, several of them University of Wisconsin coeds, lived in the six apartments on the upper two stories. Four girls present when the fire erupted fled safely.

One fireman, Dale Gritzmacher, 38, suffered a cut wrist.

Marshall B. Sergeant, owner of the building, estimated the property loss at a quarter of a million dollars.

Madison Fireman Dead in Blaze

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Defective wiring was blamed today for the $250,000 blaze that destroyed a business building near the state Capitol and took the life of a Madison fireman.

Daniel Parkinson, 33 father of five children, died when trapped by blinding smoke and flames at the height of the blaze which swept the three-story building Saturday night.

Fire Chief Ralph A. McGraw said Sunday night that defective wiring ignited the fire in a false ceiling of the basement below Sergeant's Carpet Store.

Parkinson was separated from other firemen when flames knifed through the second floor. His body was found 90 minutes later under a collapsed stairway.

Congress Meets, Awaits LBJ Message Wednesday

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress returned to work today and braced for some hard billion-dollar decisions: How much to pump into the war in Viet Nam and how much to further President Johnson's "Great Society" program at home.

The second session of the 89th Congress opened at noon. The first day customarily is a short one and no departure from the tradition-marked route was expected.

The President, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and several members of Congress began the day by attending services at the National Presbyterian church.

Congress has a pretty good idea what Johnson will ask this year, but specifics await his State of the Union message Wednesday night.

It is then that the legislators may have a better idea how the President's peace offensive is progressing, how much money he wants immediately to finance the war—and what effect all this will have on his domestic program.

The agenda today included the swearing in of new members—Harry F. Byrd Jr. in the Senate and Clarence Brown Jr. and Thomas M. Rees in the House.

Byrd, a Virginia Democrat, is succeeding his father, Harry F. Byrd, who has resigned. Brown, an Ohio Republican, is succeeding his late father, Clarence Brown, and Rees is taking the seat of Rep. James Roosevelt, D-Calif., who resigned to join the U.S. delegation to the United Nations.

Before the Senate convened, the Democrats decided at a meeting to appoint the younger Byrd to two major committees, Armed Services and Aeronautical and Space Sciences. Sen. Lee Metcalf, D-Mont., was awarded another plum, appointment to the Finance Committee lately headed by the elder Byrd.

There is some doubt that in his message Wednesday Johnson will forecast what turn the Viet Nam war is expected to take.

It is generally assumed in Congress that the pause in the bombing of North Viet Nam targets will continue at least through Jan. 24. This would represent a 30-day lull coinciding with the end of any Vietnamese New Year cease-fire which might occur.

Then Johnson would face the hard decision on whether to step up hostilities if the Communists have given no sign that they are willing to start peace talks.

While Congress has an array of left-over issues pending and Johnson may suggest a limited number of new proposals, all are overshadowed by the Viet Nam situation.

If, as anticipated, the President asks for an addition $12 billion or $13 billion in war appropriations, there will be bipartisan demands for a cutback in antipoverty, Appalachian aid and other programs.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen has called for lower expenditures on the space program if Viet Nam costs skyrocket.

On ABC's radio-television program "Issues and Answers" Sunday, he said Republicans would look thoroughly at the entire budget to see where it can be cut. "We have to find out the needs," he said. "But a lot of these programs are going to be thoroughly examined."

Blood Given Man Despite His Protests

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Despite earlier protests it was against his religious beliefs, blood transfusions were given to a man who had both legs amputated following a traffic accident.

It was his wife who went to court for a temporary guardianship order so she could ask that Kenneth L. Berger, 35, be treated.

Mrs. Berger explained Saturday: "If I hadn't signed the order, it would have always been on my conscience that I might have been a murderer."

He was hurt in a pre-Christmas accident.

Berger, a member of Jehovah's Witnesses, was loading a tree into the trunk of his car when he and a helper at the lot were struck by a car. Berger lost both legs and the other man, Dr. Donald F. Watson, 41, lost his left leg. Watson, a dentist, was doing charity work at the time.

Probate Court Judge Melvin J. Peterson signed the court order declaring Berger "physically and mentally incompetent."

Negro Leader's House Burned In Hattiesburg

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP) — A Negro leader's home and store were destroyed by fire near here early today and officers said some type of explosive was thrown into the two buildings.

Three members of the family were injured, but not seriously.

Vernon Dahmer, 58, and his daughter, Betty, 10, were in Forrest General Hospital with painful but not serious burns on the arms and face, a hospital spokesman said.

Dahmer's wife, Ellie, 41, was treated for a burn on the arm and released.

The couple's two sons, Harold 25, and Dennis, 13, were not injured.

The home and the store were located about 200 feet apart in the Kelly settlement, five miles north of here.

Anchor Inn in Wabasha Now

WABASHA, Minn. (Special)—Having outgrown its former location at Reads Landing, the Anchor Inn has been moved to Wabasha.

Co-owners of the new eating place are Ray Fitzsimmons, Pepin, who operated it at Reads Landing seven years, and Russell Smith of Nelson. Smith owned and operated the Nelson Hotel 15 years and more recently operated a drive-in at Harmony.

The new location is the former Super-Valu store building, owned by John Roth of Kellogg and vacant the last five years. Interior decorations are mahogany paneling and turquoise carpeting, with indirect lighting. The seating capacity is 200 and the owners expect to employ 20. The inn is a block from the Mississippi River so boaters will be able to moor their craft as they did at Reads Landing.

Births in 1965 Lowest Since '51

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fewer babies were born in this country during 1965 than in any year since 1951, a Public Health Service spokesman said today.

The spokesman estimated the 1965 total was about 3.8 million. That would compare with a final total for 1964 of 4,027,490 and a 1951 total of about 3,751,000.

It became clear months ago that the declining birth rate would result in 1965 since 1963 in which births would number less than 4 million.

Missing Duck Hunter Sought

MOSES LAKE, Wash. (AP) — While men in airplanes, on foot and on motorcycles searched the swampy potholes area near here for a missing duck hunter, he snoozed at a motel.

Search was begun late Saturday after Dale Krause, 19, of Snohomish, Wash., became separated from his father, Ed Krause. It continued Sunday.

At about 4 a.m., Sunday young Krause found his way out of the potholes, tramped into Moses Lake and rented a room at the motel.

"We knew there was a search going on and they had the planes out," motel operator M. H. Nelson said Sunday night. "About three this afternoon, we finally figured out it could be him. So we called the sheriff and he came out and sure enough it was."

They woke up young Krause and he went home with his father.

Students at Tuskegee Plan New Marches

TUSKEGEE, Ala. (AP) — Tuskegee Institute students plan to widen the scope of their civil rights protests today by picketing and marching while several other students demonstrate at the Lincoln Memorial in Washington.

A student leader, Gwen Patton, said the group in Washington consists of the closest friends of Samuel Young Jr., 21, a student killed in Tuskegee last Monday.

Miss Patton said students from New York and the Washington area will join the Tuskegee group at the Lincoln Memorial protesting Young's death. Tuskegee students said they would march to the downtown area today for the fifth time in six days.

Miss Patton said they intended to picket City Hall, the Marion County courthouse, a clothing store owned by Mayor Charles M. Keever and a bank operated by Alan Parker, a city councilman.

"We're going to picket the courthouse because two persons who went down there to register were given a bad time," she said. This apparently would be the first sign of protest concerning voter registration in the county. Its population of 27,000 is more than 80 per cent Negro.

After a student government meeting Sunday, leaders said they would make at least 13 demands of the City Council at a special session tonight.

One demand has been for a quick trial for Marvin Segrest, 67, a white service station attendant charged with murder in Young's death. Segrest is in jail and has not yet asked for a preliminary hearing.

Demonstrators have also demanded more job opportunities for Negroes in Tuskegee, desegregation of public facilities and desegregation of private clubs and schools.

Powell's Daughter Gets a Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The daughter of the late actor Dick Powell has been granted a divorce after testifying that the small inheritance she said her father left her may have contributed to the breakup of her marriage.

"My father did not leave me a substantial inheritance and that may have had something to do with it," said Mrs. Charles B. Hayward, 27, in her divorce case in Los Angeles Friday. Her husband, 45, is a film stuntman. She said Hayward had become sarcastic and withdrawn after Powell's death of cancer in January 1963.

U Scientists Build Machine For Spacemen

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — University of Minnesota scientists are developing a machine that could be used on some future moon flight to check on how much blood an astronaut's heart is pumping.

Work is being done under a $143,504 grant from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the device may be ready in two years.

The research is headed by William Kubicek, 52, professor of physical medicine and rehabilitation, and two research fellows. They are electrical engineers Robert Patterson and David Witsoe.

What they're developing is a method of measuring electrically the amount of blood pumped by the heart. It may prove as useful as the electrocardiogram, which measures heartbeats.

Space shots lower an astronaut's pulse rate and blood pressure. Just why, is not known, but measuring the blood flow could help determine that.

When a subject is tested, he sits at a machine resembling an exerciser with handle bars and foot pedals. It's called an electrical impedance plethysmograph.

The man is connected to it via four thin metal straps which are placed around his body, two on the neck and two about the lower abdomen.

District Judge Schedules Jury Cases for Trial

Winona County District Court organized itself this morning for the business of the January term of court, which began today.

Judge Arnold Hatfield called 66 cases on the new term's calendar of civil actions. Five were stricken for settlement, a sixth was dismissed apparently with the prospect of settlement and two other cases were stricken on procedural grounds.

THE REMAINING cases were assigned a loose priority for trial by Judge Hatfield, who expressed a desire to get most of the cases either tried or disposed of during this term while jurors are generally most available for duty.

He asked the attorneys gathered for the call of the calendar to cooperate in having their cases ready for trial when they came up on the calendar.

Judge Hatfield said he would first try jury cases carried over from the old calendar, beginning Jan. 25 when the new petit jury panel of 45 members is scheduled to report for duty.

THE FIRST jury case on the January calendar ready for trial is that of Delia Genz, St. Charles, against the city of St. Charles and Home Produce Co. Inc., St. Charles.

Plaintiff Genz asks judgment for $35,000 to compensate her for injuries allegedly received in a fall on a sidewalk in front of the company March 16, 1963. Plaintiff alleges that the city and the company were negligent in failing to remove snow, ice and some wire from a portion of the sidewalk which slopes where a driveway enters the street.

The city has answered that the plaintiff herself was negligent. The company answers that it was not negligent and that the accident did not happen in the manner described by plaintiff.

A second jury case scheduled for early trial is William F. Walter, East Burns Valley Road, for himself and his daughter, Kristine Walter, against Harold Riemann, no address given.

CASES SETTLED were: Kendall H. Fuller and Dorothy Fuller, no address given, against Wolter Lumber Co. Inc., St. Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip V.R. Heise, Pleasant Valley, against: Arthur Bakken, Rushford, Minn.; Acme Brick Co., Fort Worth, Tex., and Meir Brick Co., La Crosse, a $30,000 damage suit arising out of allegedly deficient brick used in building the Heise's home at Pleasant Valley.

John Schneider, address not given, against International Transport Agency and one of its drivers, Thomas G. Wambach, addresses not given, for $35,000 damages in connection with a pedestrian accident on U.S. 14, 1 1/2 miles east of Stockton, March 4, 1965.

Commercial Carpet Co., Rochester, against Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hanson, Lamolite Rt. 2, alleging that the Hansons refused to accept a $1,113 rug for which Mrs. Hanson had signed a contract.

And William Garry, minor son of James P. Garry, 1621 W. King St., against Mrs. Marleen Oebser, 16 Otis St., a $27,500 damage suit arising from a pedestrian accident April 21, 1964, at West 5th and Lee streets.

TALKED OUT OF IT

AUCKLAND (AP) — Police find that tongues are better than truncheons to stop New Zealand children shoplifting.

Thefts from city and suburban stores were high early in 1965. Then members of the police's juvenile crime prevention branch began visiting schools, lecturing the children class by class.

The result, after visits to 50 schools: The offenses are rare today.

Dakota Rights Worker Succeeds Murdered Man

DAKOTA, Minn. — Joseph Morse, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marius Morse, who has been a civil rights worker in Mississippi more than two years, has taken the place of the murdered Mickey Schwerner.

Morse is doing the job Schwerner was doing, directing the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) civil rights project in Meridian, Miss.

In recent weeks whites have threatened Morse, thrown rocks at his car and "suggested I go up to Neshoba County," said Morse.

Robed Klansmen, including some of those arrested in connection with the 1964 slayings, have paraded at grocery stores where Morse was leading pickets.

He said he was fearful but he doubted the Meridian area Klan would risk further trouble by killing him.

The Klan burned more than 100 crosses across Mississippi a week ago tonight.

Morse is home seeking operating funds for an automobile given him by Minnesota supporters.

Four Juveniles Arrested With Beer in Auto

Sheriff George L. Fort reported today that his office apprehended four juveniles, three from Wabasha County, on open bottle and speeding charges early Sunday.

The four are being turned over to juvenile authorities in their respective counties, the sheriff said.

He reported that his car was patrolling on U.S. 14 when it noticed a car driving west on the highway at a high rate of speed. The deputies clocked the vehicle at 75 m.p.h. between Lewiston and Utica and stopped the youths about two miles west of Utica, according to the sheriff.

The youths had three open bottles of strong beer in the car, the sheriff said, and a case of full bottles. The driver told him that all of them had been drinking, Sheriff Fort said, and that they had bought the beer in Plum City, Wis.

The St. Charles youth among the group will be turned over to Winona county juvenile authorities, and three youths from Plainview have been turned over to Wabasha County juvenile authorities, according to the sheriff.

Man Found Dead In Smoky Room; Tried to Escape

A slow-building, but intensely hot mattress fire took the life of an elderly Winona man who was unable to find his way out of his apartment early Sunday, fire department officials said.

Louis Glenna, 63, 552 1/2 E. 3rd St., apparently fell asleep while smoking in bed shortly after midnight, Fire Marshal Cleo Keiper said today.

BOTH GLENNAS' landlord, Chester C. Shank, who lives in the apartment beneath Glenna's two-room, second-floor apartment, and a niece of Glenna told firemen that they had warned the dead man about smoking in bed. The niece had visited Glenna Saturday night and warned him about it, officials said.

Keiper said that Glenna apparently awakened after the fire started and tried to get away. However, heavy smoke confused the man, and he apparently sat down in a corner of his kitchen unable to find his way out of the apartment. Firemen found his body there.

Death came as a result of asphyxiation and carbon monoxide poisoning, according to Coroner Dr. R. B. Tweedy. Keiper noted that the mattress fire, which remained confined to the apartment alone, gradually reduced the amount of oxygen in the air to a level insufficient to support life.

Carbon monoxide gas given off by the slow-burning fire could also have proven lethal, Keiper said.

NEIGHBOR Harry J. Blank, 120 Hamilton St., discovered the fire at 6:40 a.m., the fire department reported, when he saw a window in Glenna's apartment break out, followed by smoke. Blank and his wife had been on the way to church when the window broke.

Blank attempted to enter Glenna's apartment while Mrs. Blank telephoned firemen, but he was forced back by the heavy smoke, Keiper reported.

The first fireman on the scene tried to enter the apartment without a gas mask and was also forced back, Keiper said. He noted that the alarm was turned in at 6:44 a.m. and that the first fire truck reported on location at 6:45 a.m.

The fire was quickly extinguished by firemen wearing gas masks and Glenna's body was taken from the building about 10 minutes after firemen arrived, according to Keiper. Glenna had been dead for hours, Keiper said.

AS A MEASURE of the intensity of the confined blaze, Keiper noted that the mattress itself had been virtually consumed by the fire.

He also noted that the window beside Glenna's bed — the one which was broken out by the fire — had been heavily "crazed," that is, the fire's heat had made innumerable small cracks in it and the glass itself had turned an amber color.

This, and partial "crazing" in other windows of the apartment, indicate peak temperatures from the fire of 1,500 to 1,700 degrees, Keiper said.

THE FIRE caused heavy damage to Glenna's bedroom, and there was heavy smoke damage to the other room (the kitchen) as well, according to Keiper.

The plaster-walled apartment contained the fire, Keiper said; and neither the building's attic nor its first floor, where Shank lives, was involved in the fire.

Assistant State Fire Marshal Gunnar Thaug arrived in Winona this morning to conduct a routine investigation of the blaze, Keiper said.

MR. GLENNAS was born Nov. 9, 1902, in Fillmore County to Ole and Anna Elstad Glenna and lived in the area much of his life.

Survivors are: Two sons, Kenneth, Rushford, Minn., and Lyle, Brookings, S.D.; a daughter, Maxine, Pierre, S.D.; six grandchildren; eight brothers, Oliver, St. Paul; Thomas, Tucson, Ariz.; Ben, Rushford; Alfred, Chippewa Falls, Wis.; Thirous, Eau Claire, Wis., and Elias, Ole and John, Winona, and three sisters, Mrs. John (Gena) Paulson and Mrs. Arnold (Cora) Erickson, Rushford, and Mrs. Olga Johnson, Rochester.

$1.3 Million Pledged in Teresan Drive

Pledges in the College of Saint Teresa "Year of Commitment" Program exceed $1,347,688. It was announced by Sister M. Camille, president.

The interim report includes gifts in all categories of solicitation except foundations and corporations, which is now beginning solicitation under the chairmanship of Eugene W. Murphy, La Crosse.

A BREAKDOWN shows 26 parishes where Sisters of St. Francis teach pledging $1,121,500; 40 percent of the cards returned in Winona business phase for a total of $144,645; $41,960 from 308 alumnae out of 4,000 to be solicited; $4,822 from 44 parents; $12,581 from lay faculty and personnel at the college; $46,680 from 6 of 21 lay advisory board members, part of which is reflected in other categories; $5,250 on behalf of the sister faculty; $1,225 from four clergy gifts, and $4,025 from friends.

In conjunction with this announcement Sister Camille also indicated the start within two weeks of the Sisters of St. Francis teacher education phase of the campaign in the parishes throughout the Diocese of Winona where such campaigns are to be conducted. All sisters teaching in schools which the community staffs received their initial education at Saint Teresa.

"Due to the increasing costs of educating our teaching Sisters, we seek the support of those parishes receiving the benefits of this preparation," Sister Camille said. "We appreciate so much the generosity of those parishes which already have responded in a very significant way."

THE WINONA business, lay advisory board and the faculty personnel categories of solicitation are to be completed by Feb. 1. The parish phase will be completed by March 1; the parents and friends solicitation will be launched in the spring of 1966 and completed by early summer.

Campaign leaders expressed optimism that the $2,500,000 stage planned for this year would be subscribed toward the total $4,761,723 program.

Damaged Truck Blocks Highway for Nine Hours

COCHRANE, Wis. — A 19-year-old Arcadia youth en route to see his girl friend at Buffalo City, escaped with injuries when he collided with a tractor and semitrailer Sunday at 6 p.m. 2 1/2 miles south of Cochrane on Highway 35.

Bernard Soppa's doctor said the youth was in satisfactory condition this morning at Community Memorial Hospital, Winona. His worst injury is a deep and extensive laceration of the left shoulder, involving a fracture of the collarbone.

SOPPA, son of Conrad Soppa, Arcadia, also received a concussion, multiple lacerations over his body and torn ligaments of the left knee. He was conscious when he was found lying across the front seat in his 1957 car. It is a complete loss.

Jerry Slocum, 23, Ellsworth, semi driver, escaped injury although the vehicle jackknifed and tipped onto its right side. It blocked the highway and held up traffic for nine hours until the undamaged portion of its cargo of eggs, bound for New Jersey, could be removed and placed in another truck and the semi removed.

Slocum was proceeding south in the truck and Soppa north.

ACCORDING to Henry Zeichert, Buffalo County traffic officer, the truck was proceeding almost on the right or west shoulder when the left headlights of the two vehicles smashed together. The officer described ed the truck as "climbing onto the car," literally crushing it, and then tipped broadside on the blacktop.

Zeichert estimated damage to the $40,000 tractor and semi at $20,000.

Following the impact the car swerved sharply right and plunged into the bank on his right or the east side of the highway.

The entire left side of the car was torn off, the engine popped from under the hood and landed 60 feet south of where the bank had stopped the car.

SLOCUM, who crawled from the cab of the tractor, was driving for Kenneth Knudsen, Red Wing, Minn. The truck was leased by Knudsen from Fred Lowry, Red Wing. Another semi picked up the cargo that could be saved and took it back to Red Wing.

Every available enforcement officer was at the scene helping unload the truck and stopping traffic until 3 a.m. today.

WRECKED CAR . . . The engine of this 1957 car, which flew 60 feet from the point of impact with a semi-trailer near Cochrane, Wis., late Sunday afternoon, was loaded into the trunk before the wreckage was towed into Fountain City. Elmer Duellman looks over the wreckage in which the driver escaped with nonfatal injuries. Estimated damage to the semi was $20,000. (Daily News photo)

Table Cloths Didn't Laugh

By EARL WILSON

AMERICANA HOTEL, New York — The Subway Strike has gone down in history as Death Valley Time for the night club comedians who clowned to many empty tables and were rewarded frequently with a funeral silence.

Jack Carter at the Royal Box here, the biggest man in the hotel after Mike Quill left so abruptly, said, "Oh, the strike didn't hurt our business a bit."

Mississippi Floods Home At Monticello

MONTICELLO, Minn. (AP)—The Mississippi River picked the coldest time of winter to flood the Harold Peterson home and threaten several nearby houses Friday.

Volunteers from Maple Lake and Buffalo helped the Petersons carry furniture from their walkout basement in 21-below-zero cold as an ice jam broke and water poured over dikes outside the home.

Lee McKinnon, Civil Defense chief, said chunks of ice 15 feet across and three inches thick bore down on the sandbag dikes and tore the top off in one place. Eventually the dikes around the Peterson home were repaired. McKinnon said the winter flood resulted because a sudden freeze followed comparatively mild weather. Ice piled up at a bridge here and water rose as the ice jammed itself solid, apparently to the river bottom. Then the water began to rise and spread.

Some 60 men — firemen, Civil Defense workers, volunteers and sheriff's deputies — worked through the bitter cold of night to build and man the dikes. Water kept rising during the night and came within six inches of last spring's highest flood level here.

Falling temperatures during the early morning hours helped to halt the rise of the water, McKinnon said.

"This froze ice chunks together and the top of the river now has a solid sheet of ice on it and the river is flowing beneath," he said.

Dynamite was used to break up some of the ice jams and this further helped to increase the flow of water.

By noon, McKinnon said, the only large ice jam was six miles south of Monticello and there was only an abandoned school at that point on the river.

DEAR ABBY:

Wife's Letters 'Real Snowball'

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: A colonel suggested that a service wife with a grievance against her husband would get quicker results by writing directly to her husband's commanding officer rather than to her Congressman.

I am a retired Army major, and hear this: One lady, whose philandering husband ran my operations section, wrote to me with her complaints. I called the sergeant in and we had a little chat. Then I sat down and wrote the wife the usual letter: "I have discussed the matter with your husband, et cetera, et cetera, et cetera." Well, it seems this gal was singularly unimpressed with my "et ceteras," so she unlimbered her typewriter and gave out with an encore. She wrote not only to her Congressman, but to both her senators, and to the chief of staff, and to the adjutant general, and to the chief of chaplains, and to the secretary of state and the secretary of defense. And to top it off, she wrote to the President of the United States and Mrs. Eisenhower!

Abby, you should have seen the fan mail I got from Washington! Those who lived through it still speak in awed whispers of the "Great July Blizzard of 1954." But that was one Operation Sergeant who really got straightened out in a hurry.

"HONEST AL" IN ROANOKE, VA. MAJOR, USAR (RETIRED)

DEAR ABBY: I am 14 years old and in our house we have this rule: Nobody can accept a telephone call during supper time. Well, I have told this to all my friends, but this one girl, no matter how many times I tell her, always calls me during the supper hour and I have to say, "I'll call you back later," but she says, "I just want to say this one little thing," and she goes right on talking, and then I get into trouble. I have even tried hanging up on her, but she calls back. My family would never just let the phone ring, so this puts me in a very awkward and embarrassing position. Please help me.

DEAR B. G.: Don't answer the telephone during mealtime, and if she calls, ask whoever answers the phone to say that you are having your supper and cannot leave the table.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SMARTEST GIRL IN THE CLASS, BUT NOT LIKED" IN WILKES BARRE, PA.: Never seem wiser or more learned than the people you are with. (That advice was given by Lord Chesterfield in 1748, and it's still good for people of all ages.)

Manpower in Viet Nam Up In Past Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate report on the war in Viet Nam gives this account of manpower on both sides there:

Government of Viet Nam — 635,000 men under arms, about 300,000 of them regular troops of the army, navy, air force and marines. The others are regional constabulary forces, lightly armed popular forces, irregulars and national police.

United States — approximately 180,000 troops.

Republic of Korea — about 21,000 soldiers and marines.

Australia — an infantry battalion and artillery battery, totaling some 1,200 men.

New Zealand — an artillery battery of about 150 men.

Total Viet Cong strength — an estimated 230,000 men.

The report gave this breakdown:

Viet Cong "main force soldiers" — 59,000.

Peoples army of North Viet Nam — 14,000.

Militia — 100,000.

Support troops — 17,000.

Political cadres — 40,000.

The report said the Viet Cong, through recruitment in the South and infiltration from the Communist North, are believed capable of substantially increasing their numbers in a short period of time.

Next time you are making meat balls from ground lamb, you might like to achieve new flavor by adding a little mint. If the fresh variety isn't on hand, use dried mint — about a teaspoon of the latter to a pound of the ground meat mixed with a cup of fine dry breadcrumbs and a couple of eggs.

Some Bird Gleanings

It seems as though we have been neglecting the birds unduly so far this winter and have not mentioned as many observations as usual. Several of our readers have taken us to task for this and it is hoped that the following notes will help to make up for the omissions.

The members of the Hiawatha Valley Bird Club in the recent annual bird census recorded a total of 42 species in the day's count, as compared with a previous high of 40 species in the winter count of 1961. The snow storms in the north coupled with milder weather and less snow in this area probably accounted for the early winter presence of such species as the crossbills, evening grosbeaks and many redpolls.

These yearly one day bird counts on a nationwide basis provide valuable information collectively on the distribution of the various species and the number of individuals of the same. From these figures the extent to which a species is diminishing or increasing in numbers from year to year may be relatively determined. They have brought to light the great decline in the number of bluebirds in recent years and, also, the decreases in the eagle population which has caused great concern throughout the nation.

MORE AND more people are feeding the birds during the winter and many continue the practice throughout the summer months. Some persons who previously limited their bird feeding activities to the occasional scattering of bread crumbs on a cleared place on the walk or drive, now engage in it more extensively with special feeders and a variety of food. This is very desirable, since the birds are continually subjected to greater dangers by the increasing population spread. And, as we become better acquainted with them through more intimate association, the different species are not only recognized, but the individual characteristics are noted as well. From a mere observer, one can become an enthusiastic admirer of the birds and receive great enjoyment from the winter feeding project.

MR. AND MRS. LaGrande Sanford, Dakota, Minn., have been consistent feeders of the birds for many years and seem to be very fortunate in attracting many species as well as individual numbers. In a recent letter Mrs. Sanford writes that they have had up to 6 evening grosbeaks on different occasions, but that they are not steady feeders. The presence of these birds at various places in the area is indicated by reports from some members of the Hiawatha Bird Club. They seem to be more widely distributed than was the case last year.

The Sanfords have had a red-breasted nuthatch at their feeders for the past two months. Instead of being of a timid nature, it is pugnacious and saucy, actively chasing the chickadees away from a favorite feeder. However, their most prized guest is an exquisite little male ruby-crowned kinglet that has been coming to the feeders regularly for the past three weeks. Also, 3 golden-crowned kinglets were observed in nearby trees one day, but they did not come to the feeders. In addition they have a brown creeper as a regular guest. Other birds that frequent their yard are downy and hairy woodpeckers, chickadees, white-breasted nuthatches, juncos and cardinals. Mrs. Sanford has observed, also, a tufted titmouse, a red-breasted nuthatch and a tree sparrow at the feeders of a friend.

44,170 Killed On U.S. Roads In 11 Months

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council says traffic accidents through November claimed a record 44,170 lives.

The council said Friday this was a 2 per cent increase over November 1964, when 43,210 deaths were reported.

However, the council noted that traffic mileage increased by 5 per cent during the period and that fatalities declined from 5.6 per 100 million vehicle miles in 1964 to 5.5 for the same period in 1965.

Chicago had the lowest fatality rate—2.7 deaths per 10,000 registered vehicles for 11 months. Philadelphia had 3.1, Detroit 3.7 and New York 3.9. Los Angeles did not submit a report.

Families Visit New Ridgeway School

By RUTH ROGERS
Daily News Area Editor

RIDGEWAY, Minn. — Ridgeway Independent School District 859 proudly displayed its new building at open house Sunday afternoon.

Construction of the dark brick school, on the peak of a hill just north of Ridgeway, began in June. First classes met there Nov. 29.

ENROLLMENT is 93. There are 34 students in grades 1-2, taught by Mrs. Blondell Stelplugh, Houston; 34 in grades 3-4 taught by Mrs. Carl Stallknecht, Winona, and 25 in grades 5-6, with Mrs. Ervin Romine, Winona, as teacher.

Each of the four classrooms is 30 by 30 feet. The hard-working board is considering a kindergarten class in the spring.

Directors are: Alton Blumentritt, chairman; Arthur Erdmann, vice chairman; Robert McNally, clerk; Norman Schossow, treasurer; Ralph Frick and Emil W. Pflughoeft. Their seventh and eighth graders attend school in Winona and Houston.

Work on consolidation, with encouragement from the state Department of Education, started in this area in the summer of 1963. Early in February 1964 eight rural districts voted the merger; they were Whitlock, Boynton, Cooper, Bush, Ridgeway, Upper Cedar Valley, Midway and Ireland.

THE COMMISSIONER of education assigned the name—Independent School District 859, according to notice sent to the school officers by Jesse B. Jestus, Winona County Superintendent of schools. At the first election of the new district in March, the present directors were elected.

The district voted Sept. 24, 1964, for a $170,000 bond issue to build and sold the issue at 3.53 average interest. W-Smith Architectural Services, Winona, drew the plans.

Successful bidders for construction were: WMC, Inc., general contract, and Kramer & Toye, mechanical, both of Winona; Norman's Electric, Rushford, electrical; Mueller Brothers, Gaylord, the well, and Aslesen Co., St. Paul, kitchen equipment. Thomas Flynn, Houston, was legal counsel.

AS GUESTS filed into the front door of the dark brownish-gray brick building Sunday, they stepped into a vestibule with terrazzo flooring. The restrooms also are in terrazzo.

Vinyl tile covers the floors in the remainder of the building. The corridors have vitreous enamel wainscoting for longer wear and easier cleaning. The concrete block interiors are painted in pastel colors. Stained cupboards and other equipment are ready in the kitchen when the district can begin serving hot lunches.

The one-story building has a hot water heating system from an oil burning furnace. The multi-purpose room, 40 by 60 feet, has a raised roof for basketball games and other gymnastic activities. Right off the kitchen, this also will serve as a cafeteria.

Bouquets of flowers from business people and friends greeted guests as they were shown through the school and served coffee and donuts before they left. Among the some 150 families attending were people from surrounding communities.

Tax-Exempt Property

ROCHESTER PEOPLE have been doing some grumbling this fall about property that doesn't share in the local tax load. And perhaps with good reason.

The Rochester critics have looked particularly at two church-backed projects. American Religious Town Hall Meeting, Inc., an inter-faith group, expects tax exemption on its million-dollar Villa Vista retirement home now under construction. And Olmsted County commissioners have recommended tax exemption for a Catholic-sponsored Madonna Towers that will include apartments and town houses along with an infirmary, Catholic chapel, and worship facilities for other creeds. This also is under construction.

Responding to local discontent, the Rochester Post-Bulletin developed a series of articles on tax-exempt property. The standard is generally that the property must be "non-profit" and open to "public use." Specific exemption is granted all governmental units, public cemeteries, public hospitals and schools, colleges and seminaries, both public and church-related. There are a few other specific exemptions of dubious nature, such as cheese held in storage for aging by the original Minnesota manufacturer and farm machinery manufactured before 1930 and used for display purposes.

SURVEYING seven Southeastern Minnesota cities, the Post-Bulletin found the lowest percentage of tax-exempt property in Red Wing. The $1.9 million in assessed value of exempt property there is only 22.2 percent of the Red Wing total. The tax-exempt percentage runs 23.1 percent at Albert Lea, 23.9 percent in Austin, 26.2 percent in Rochester, 28.1 percent at Owatonna, 35.8 percent in Winona with all our colleges, churches and parks, and a formidable 49.9 percent at Faribault with so many state institutions.

The Post-Bulletin series didn't urge narrowing the definition of tax-exempt property nor recommend how the dividing line should be drawn. But the Red Wing Republican Eagle has a suggestion. The test, in its opinion, should be:

Does this piece of property serve primarily a function that private enterprise usually performs? If the answer is No, let it be exempt. If Yes, place it on the tax rolls.

CHURCHES, schools, hospitals, YMCAs would all remain exempt under this standard. But a retirement home, an apartment house, a church parsonage? Housing is a normal private enterprise function and ought to pay taxes whether its ownership is church or secular, profit or non-profit, says the Red Wing newspaper.

In Rochester, the Villa Vista sponsors have frankly said that their rental rates would have to be 75 percent higher than planned if the five-story retirement home has to pay taxes. But is there any reason these residents should not pay for police and fire protection, city parks and streets, a public library, and so on? If they can't afford it, then the public subsidy should come through normal welfare channels.

The Red Wing newspaper would apply the same logic to public housing, proposed for Red Wing and elsewhere. The regular procedure in federally financed public housing is 10 percent of rental income in lieu of taxes. But is 10 percent adequate? It takes at least $100 a month to rent a good home these days, but $10 monthly will hardly pay the taxes on that home. Public housing ought to pay regular taxes like other housing so that the subsidy for those who live there is not hidden in a preferred tax status, concludes the upriver newspaper.

Remember, It Could Be Worse

AS YOU GAZE glumly at the falling snow and brood about galoshes, snow shovels, and aching backs, remember that it could be worse.

Much worse. For instance, back in 1921, 76 inches of snow fell at Silver Lake, Colo., in just 24 hours. And at Tahoe, Calif., 108 inches of snow came down between Jan. 12 and 15, 1952.

The record snowfall for a calendar month occurred at Tamarack, Calif., which got 390 inches during January 1911. In the same year a record depth of snow accumulated at Tamarack, where 454 inches covered the ground.

The all-time U.S. record for snowfall in one season was set from July 1955, to June 1956, when 1,000.3 inches of snow fell at the 5,500-foot level of Mount Rainier, Wash. Be glad you don't live there.

ALL THESE figures are records, and therefore unusual. But individual snowfalls of 30 inches are not unusual at all. In the hills southeast of Lake Erie and Lake Ontario, the average winter snowfall is more than 150 inches. Erie, Pa., on the south-east shore of Lake Erie, was buried by a 27-inch snowfall on Thanksgiving Day, 1956. Be glad you don't live there, either.

But no matter where you live, there are few spots in the United States which never get snow. For instance, snow fell as far south as Lakeland, Fla., near St. Petersburg, in January 1958.

SO, LIKE IT or not, snow is going to be with us for awhile, and in quantity. People who like snow include small children, skiers, and the people who make galoshes and snow shovels.

For the Lord will execute his word upon the earth, finishing it and cutting it short.—Romans 9:28.

How to Settle N.Y. Problems

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — How could the transit strike in New York City be satisfactorily settled? Putting aside all the emotional outbursts, name-calling and irresponsible actions that have occurred, the question, after all, is whether the demands of 33,000 human beings for better working conditions are being given proper consideration.

There are two sides to almost every labor dispute. Unfortunately, the workers' side is too often clouded by the injudicious action of labor leaders either seeking to perpetuate themselves in office or to indulge in some form of exhibitionism.

The best thing that could happen to solve the problem would be for the union leaders to send the men back to work after receiving assurance from the mayor of New York City that a special tribunal would be set up to examine all the demands and to render a decision based upon equity and fair play.

FOR CERTAINLY transit workers who see other employees of the city government getting better wages in less strenuous jobs feel that they are the victims of discrimination. Standards could be set up for all city government employees, so that there would be a wider knowledge among the workers themselves as to the basis for compensation.

It is acknowledged, for example, that some of the transit workers are being paid less than is being received by other employees in comparable jobs. But this is not the kind of thing that can be settled by a strike or by a show of economic force or other coercive tactics. When a city government is involved, it represents the people — not only those who live within the borders of the city but those who come daily from outlying areas to do their work.

BY SETTING up a special tribunal to study the whole question of the pay of employees of the city of New York, Mayor Lindsay would be taking a constructive step. Those who work for a city government are entitled to as much consideration as employees who are outside the government, and in recent years there has been substantial progress made by the federal government itself in improving its wage scales. These have been long neglected. Government employees have not fared as well over the years as have persons in private employment. While some differentials are inevitable, the gap has been too wide in many instances. The transit strike in New York City accentuates this defect in the compensation system for government employees.

But when all is said and done, the employees in a city are the citizens of the municipality. They are the ones who must pay the taxes, and there has not been enough information given them as to the importance of setting up adequate wage scales in order to get efficient service.

WHO THREW THE OVERALLS IN MR. MEANY'S CHOWDER?

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Viet Nam War Effort Hampered by Supplies

By JACK ANDERSON

(Editor's Note: Dren Pearson is in the Holy Land. During his absence the column is written by his associate, Jack Anderson.)

WASHINGTON — A gigantic shipping snafu is holding up vital supplies for American forces in Viet Nam, seriously hampering the war effort.

Navy and merchant ships, unable to meet their schedules, piled up a 65,000-ton backlog last month. The bottleneck: Ships must wait interminably in South Viet Nam waters to get their cargoes unloaded.

Some ships have waited at anchor more than 30 days until they have run short of food and water. Forced to sail to Manila or Bangkok for fresh stocks, they have been obliged upon their return to take up positions at the end of the line and wait another 30 days.

All the time these ships lie idle in the war zone, it should be added, the crews draw extra combat pay.

THE AIR FORCE, whose cargo planes have been breaking all records for keeping on the move, still wound up last month with a 16,000-ton backlog.

There simply aren't enough planes to handle all the airlift. In desperation, the Air Force is now sounding out foreign airlines about chartering more planes.

Replacements also haven't been arriving fast enough to suit Gen. William Westmoreland, the American commander in Viet Nam, who keeps badgering Washington for more men and material.

The recent report in this space, telling how Sen. John McClellan, D-Ark., has been investigating banks out of his front office and working in his back office to block competition for his own bank, did the senator an injustice.

THIS COLUMN must now apologize for understating his banking interests. McClellan is a director and stockholder in the First National Bank of Little Rock, which was threatened with competition from a group seeking a federal charter to open a rival bank. The senator owns 1,500 shares in First National, which makes him one of the 20 largest stockholders.

As the Senate's No. 1 investigator, he held headlined hearings last year into the failures of three newly-chartered banks. Later he appeared before the American Bankers Association convention to charge that "too many national banks are being unwisely chartered too fast and too freely."

At the same time, McClellan was quietly forwarding letters from constituents to Comptroller of the Currency James Saxon, opposing not only the application for the Little Rock charter but also applications for bank charters in nearby West Memphis and Jacksonville, Ark.

This column has now discovered that McClellan also happens to be a stockholder in the Bank of West Memphis, which has been fighting to keep competitors out of its territory.

WHEN A GROUP first tried to establish a rival bank in West Memphis 10 years ago, McClellan arranged for an appointment for B. J. Lambert, president of the bank in which the senator holds an interest, to see then-Comptroller Ray Gidney. The comptroller's office subsequently turned down the application.

Last year, another group sought a charter in West Memphis, and McClellan began his "crusade" against new charters. When he called a press conference to explain his views at the bankers convention, observers spotted among the reporters none other than B. J. Lambert.

Nevertheless, Saxon granted the West Memphis charter, though he turned down the application for a new national bank in Little Rock.

The federal raid on Nazi headquarters in Arlington, Va., last month produced more than evidence of unpaid taxes. Startled agents also discovered that a mystery woman, a tall, fading blonde, is living in the Nazi barracks in the midst of all the storm troopers.

Even more astonishing, the records reveal that a baby daughter also lived with her in the barracks for several months. A coroner's report claims the baby "choked and gagged" to death three years ago.

THE MOTHER is Barbara Von Goetz, who has a room across the hall from the living quarters of the self-styled American fuhrer, George Lincoln Rockwell. She claims to be his secretary.

She gave birth to a daughter, according to the records, on Dec. 8, 1961, at the District of Columbia General Hospital.

"Now, please don't ask me what my complaint is!"

WASHINGTON CALLING

Fancy Political Footwork in N.Y.

By WILLIAM S. WHITE

WASHINGTON — The New York transit strike from its outset has produced a skittering ballet of fancy political footwork as the forces of Mayor John V. Lindsay maneuvered to take him off a spot plainly marked X.

The indispensable objective was to make absolutely certain that Lindsay's rival, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, did not move in to get credit for any possible settlement that the Mayor himself might be unable to arrange. A precondition was to draw the national administration of President Johnson into this local mare's nest. For in such an eventuality Lindsay could always say that even if he himself had been unable to get the subways running, the immensity of the problem was proved by the very fact that it took the entire United States government to do the job.

THIS INNER scene many national politicians — some of them naturally being bad, old Democrats but even more of them being good, regular Republicans — have watched with an interest not free of sardonic amusement at Lindsay's plight.

While the regular Republicans had to accept Lindsay as their party's nominee in the recent mayoralty election, this did not mean they had to like him immensely. For he owed his victory not to organized Republicans, whom he shunned as though an unpleasant smell arose from them, but to the splinter Liberal party. And he also drew his Ivy League cloak disdainfully away from the relatively liberal Republican who is Rockefeller.

IN A WORD, he was in reality a nonparty candidate of a clutch of far-out liberals, small "l" as well as large "L," who put on one of the most howlingly self-righteous "crusades" in the history of politics. To say that the Republicans — both the regular kind and the Rockefeller kind — were not amused is the understatement of the new year.

So the position stood when Lindsay took office to be hit instantly in the face by the transit union boss, Mike Quill, with precisely the municipal disaster that former Mayor Robert F. Wagner had somehow always averted at about a quarter to midnight. Irony was further served by the circumstance that Lindsay had made a career of ridiculing the Wagner types of New York as dreary has-beens who had let the city go to pot for want of "imagination" and the like.

MAYBE SO. Still, the inconvenient reality remained that the city had been brought to a dreadful halt in the first day of the new regime of the man who had been presented as the wonder-worker of a fresh, young generation which would reclaim for New York civic glories that in truth it never had and probably never will.

What made it all even more poignant was the circumstance that the Liberal party, which had really put Lindsay over, is awash with labor leaders like tough and able David Dubinsky who let the reformist types stand out in front while they run the party from the inside.

THUS Lindsay's dilemma was acute: If he did what he ought to do and smashed this intolerable strike at once by whatever lawful means might be required, his widely assumed Presidential ambitions would be profoundly served as Calvin Coolidge's were served long ago in the Boston police strike. But to move really hard against Quill labor would be also perhaps to outrage Liberal party labor, to which he owes his very all.

So if all his own modified efforts at settlement were to fail, he simply had to look to Washington. He could not go to Rockefeller without making Rockefeller the really big man in New York.

Thus a subtle pressure was on to draw in President Johnson, possibly through the able but sometimes over-eager Arthur Goldberg, who is presently our Ambassador to the United Nations but was in his earlier life an outstanding labor negotiator.

PRESIDENTS HONORED — Above Mrs. Floyd Kuhlman, right, president of the local VFW Auxiliary, plus a corsage on Mrs. Louis Anderson, Elbow Lake, Minn., department president, as she had previously done to Mrs. Paul Miller, Northfield, Minn., First District president. The women were honored with other dignitaries at the district meeting Sunday at Red Men's Wigwam. First District VFW Women Convene Here at Red Men's

The Auxiliary to Neville-Lien Post 1287, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was host Sunday to 100 women of auxiliaries in First District. The women met in conjunction with the Posts.

AUXILIARY sessions, presided over by Mrs. Paul Miller, Northfield, Minn., district president, were held at Red Men's Wigwam, starting at 10:30 a.m. Present were representatives of auxiliaries in Albert Lea, Austin, Brownsville, Chatfield, Ellendale, Faribault, Kenyon, Lake City, Mabel, Northfield, Owatonna, Rochester, Rushford, St. Charles, Spring Valley, Wabasha, Waseca and Zumbrota, in addition to local members. Special guests were Mrs. Louis Anderson, Elbow Lake, Minn., department president, and Mrs. Uno M. Saari, formerly of Ely, Minn., but now of Winona, past department president.

THEY WERE presented with corsages as were past district presidents: The Mmes. August Nesseth, Zumbrota; Arlene Busho, Ellendale; Fred Butterfass, Rochester; Delmar Fredrickson, Albert Lea; and Edwin Yarger, Faribault; and Miss Bertha Miller, Winona. Making the presentations was Mrs. Floyd Kuhlman, local president. The past district presidents were further honored with gifts.

Mrs. Anderson, who addressed the women, stressed community service and membership in her remarks. About the former, she said, "What you do for yourself dies when you do, but what you do for the community lives on."

At noon a luncheon, served by the local auxiliary, was shared by members of the visiting posts, followed by a joint meeting.

It was announced that the next district meeting will be in Faribault March 6.

ON DISPLAY at the VFW Clubrooms, where the men met, was the Christmas cards scrapbook project of the auxiliary. Headed by their president, Mrs. Kuhlman, Mrs. Edward Holehouse and Mrs. Erwin Rose, the women are busy assembling scrap books made of newspaper donated by the Winona Daily News, with covers of gaily printed Christmas cards, which they are collecting.

A card is stapled to 10 sheets of newspaper for each book, which will be sent to school children at Viet Nam. Since many books are being made and the work is expected to go on for a month, help is needed, said Mrs. Holehouse. The women also would appreciate the loan of another paper cutter to shape the sheets. Anyone interested may call her or Mrs. Kuhlman.

Boy Saves Girl From Drowning

BELOIT, Wis. (AP) — A 12-year-old Beloit boy rescued a girl from drowning in frozen Turtle Creek near Beloit Sunday.

Thomas Saecker, a seventh grader, heard screams from the creek which runs behind his home. Dressed only in T-shirt, pants and socks, he dashed out of his house, dove into the water, and pulled Sally Hooverson, 11, to shore. He gave her mouth-to-mouth resuscitation until she recovered.

For a buffet lunch, you might like to serve antipasto as the main course. For it arrange on a large platter: halved hard-cooked eggs, white-meat tuna, marinated asparagus and snap beans, olives (ripe and green), stuffed celery, sliced Italian-style salami, marinated artichoke hearts. Have a big basket of crusty rolls and sweet butter on hand.

Trial Slated on Speeding Charge

Judge John D. McGill set a date for trial of a speeding charge and denied an accident driver's motion for return of his driver's license in municipal court action today.

Francis J. Amore, 21, Chicago, pleaded not guilty today in municipal court to a charge of speeding 60 m.p.h. in a 30 zone on Gilmore Avenue from Clark's Lane to Cummings Street Sunday at 1:45 a.m.

Judge McGill set trial of the matter for Jan. 14 at 10 a.m. He set bail at $25, which Amore had posted.

The motion of Austin F. Shira, 77, Homer Road, for restoration of his driver's license was denied today by the judge.

Shira had appeared in court Saturday with his attorney, William A. Lindquist, to request return of his driver's license. At that time, he had presented letters from his doctor saying that his health is good.

Shira was injured in the accident Dec. 17 which took the life of a 20-year-old St. Mary's College student on U.S. 61-14 about a mile east of Winona. The letters said that he has recovered from his injuries.

Something to Live by

Have you ever considered that you have the ability to be everything you are now, and more by giving of your best to life? It's true.

It has been pointed out that the Dead Sea contains no life, primarily because it takes everything in and lets nothing out. That is, it has tributaries running in, but none running out.

Life is paralleled to the Dead Sea when one fails to give of himself. The person blessed with a good singing voice but refusing to use it, has that talent without benefit to himself or to others. This is obvious in the case of a singing voice, but you know, it's also true of those lesser talents and personality traits that's important but often neglected.

IT'S EASY to fall into an attitude of life that squelches the spirit of purposeful living. Concern is for self, and the prime question is, "What's in it for me?" People who like people without particular design give of themselves. They're polite, and by being polite, they develop politeness. They are helpful and by being helpful, they are quick to see opportunities to help their fellowmen. It's like smiling — you smile at a person, and usually you receive a smile in return. Give of yourself, and before you know it, you're the recipient of good things. It's a natural rule. You like people, and people will like you.

It must be a miserable life when one is counted a difficult person to be around, causing others to avoid him at every turn. Age often is a factor. When we think of an ornery so-and-so, we usually add the adjective "old". He's an ornery old so-and-so. Not that orneryness isn't often a characteristic of the young, but when orneryness is manifested through the years, it seems most obvious in an old person. Stop and think. On the other hand, when one is sweet, understanding and outgoing, it is all enhanced by age, as we say he or she is a dear old soul.

IT SEEMS important to me that we make the effort to go the second mile. At the risk of sounding like a "Good-will Joe," I mean to emphasize the fact that reaching out to others has a marvelous way of paying great dividends.

Once I read of a service station attendant who went out of his way to be nice to folks. If he saw a little old lady walking with an armful of groceries, he would offer to carry them. If someone was in a spot and needed an errand run, he would take his time to run that errand. He soon got to be known as that nice service station man. And guess what service station the public favored the most? You guessed it — helpful Johnny's. His kindness returned to him a hundredfold and you couldn't convince him it didn't pay to be nice to folks. This all seems to be best expressed in that saying of old, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

A final reminder is that hardening of the heart ages people more quickly than hardening of the arteries.

Anti-Poverty Committee Named in Trempealeau

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — Three members of a five-member executive board to represent Trempealeau County on a four-county community action committee under the federal Economic Opportunity program were elected at the courthouse here Friday afternoon.

Trempealeau, Buffalo and Jackson county boards voted in November to participate in the anti-poverty program. Eau Claire County, which has been placed in the same district with the other three, hasn't voted to participate yet. Its board will meet Friday to vote for or against.

IF EAU Claire fails to vote for the program, said Carl Olien, state Economic Opportunity director, $119,000 will be available in federal funds under this Great Society program for the three other counties.

Olien said the opportunity programs are designed to provide technical and financial assistance to urban and rural communities to fight poverty. Urban families of four with an annual income of $3,130 and rural farm families with income 60 percent of that amount will be eligible to participate. The program placed the farm families on a lower participation scale because of their supposed housing and living costs.

Programs may include remedial reading, literacy courses, job training, employment counseling, homemaker services, job development, vocational rehabilitation and health services, the state director said.

FEDERAL money will be available to help establish community action groups, assist in developing programs, support the programs, and provide specialized technical aid.

Federal funds will pay 90 percent of the cost of the programs in the first two years; Olien said. The remainder must be furnished by the community action groups in cash or through services and facilities.

However, Olien said, federal assistance will depend on their community's determination to mobilize its on public and private resources for the attack on poverty. It will be the community's duty to develop programs of sufficient scope and size that give promise of eliminating a cause or causes of poverty.

The programs must involve the poor themselves in developing and operating the program and administer and coordinate it through public or private non-profit agencies or a combination of these.

IN ANSWER to a question from the floor, Olien denied that the program would create dependence. Instead, he said, it will fill a need that will enable low income families to get out of poverty. Therefore, it will create independency, he said.

About 150 representing towns, villages and cities attended the meeting. Elected to the five-member executive board to represent the county on the Region 7 Community Action committee were Mrs. Mabel Skroch, Arcadia, chairman; William Amundson, Strum, vice chairman and Ray Nereng, Blair, secretary. The other two will be selected from the low-income participating group.

Other nominations from the floor were the Rev. Gordon Trygstad, Pigeon Falls; the Rev. F. S. Disher, Arcadia; Basil Arneson, Blair, and Mrs. Lambert Gronemus, Whitehall. Voting was by ballot.

ERNEST Peterson, La Crosse, Minn., regional coordinator, also present, announced that in addition to the Eau Claire County meeting Friday, organizational meetings have been set in other areas as follows:

Thursday at 8 p.m. at the courthouse in Black River Falls for Jackson County; Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., at the La Crosse County courthouse for organizing the executive board there, and Jan. 19 at the La Crosse courthouse for organizing the community action committee for Monroe, Vernon, Crawford and La Crosse counties.

District DFL To Meet Here

Winona County DFL Chairman Richard O'Bryan reported that the Winona delegation to the 1st District DFL meeting in Rochester this past weekend successfully bid for the 1966 district convention here April 17.

The convention will bring some 200 delegates to the city, O'Bryan said.

Of significance also was the address of Lt. Gov. A. M. "Sandy" Keith. He told the group that the party has a responsibility to choose the DFL'er who has the best chance of winning as a gubernatorial candidate, and that he would support the candidate selected.

O'Bryan said a dinner honoring Keith will be held Jan. 28 in the Kaehler Hotel, Rochester. Tickets can be obtained from O'Bryan or members of the county DFL committee.

30 Truckloads Of Trees Burn

The annual Jaycee Christmas "treelift" was a blazing success, according to Eugene Solberg, project chairman.

Thirty-one men with six trucks hauled 30 truckloads of trees from Winona and Goodview to the burning site at the east end of Lake Winona. Cleanup was nearly complete by 6 p.m., Solberg said.

Collected trees made a pile about 50 by 20 feet and 10 feet high.

"It made quite a fire, with the entire pile burning completely in 20 minutes," said Solberg. "More than 50 cars filled the parking lot and were strung out along the highway, filled with people watching the blaze."

"We would suggest that people who anchor their trees in a ball of concrete break off the concrete before putting the tree out for pickup next year," Solberg said. Nonburned materials must be cleaned off the ice.

Old and New Combined in One-Story

By ANDY LANG

The term "Transitional" has been given to the type of residential architecture which spans the gap between Traditional and Contemporary. It reflects the size of the forward step which the general home-buying public has been willing to take over the course of the years. It therefore depicts the choice of the majority of people.

THERE IS much of the Transitional about Design G-18, the latest House of the Week. A one-story house of modest dimensions and less than 1,500 square feet of habitable area. It has features seen in both the authentic Traditional and the true Contemporary.

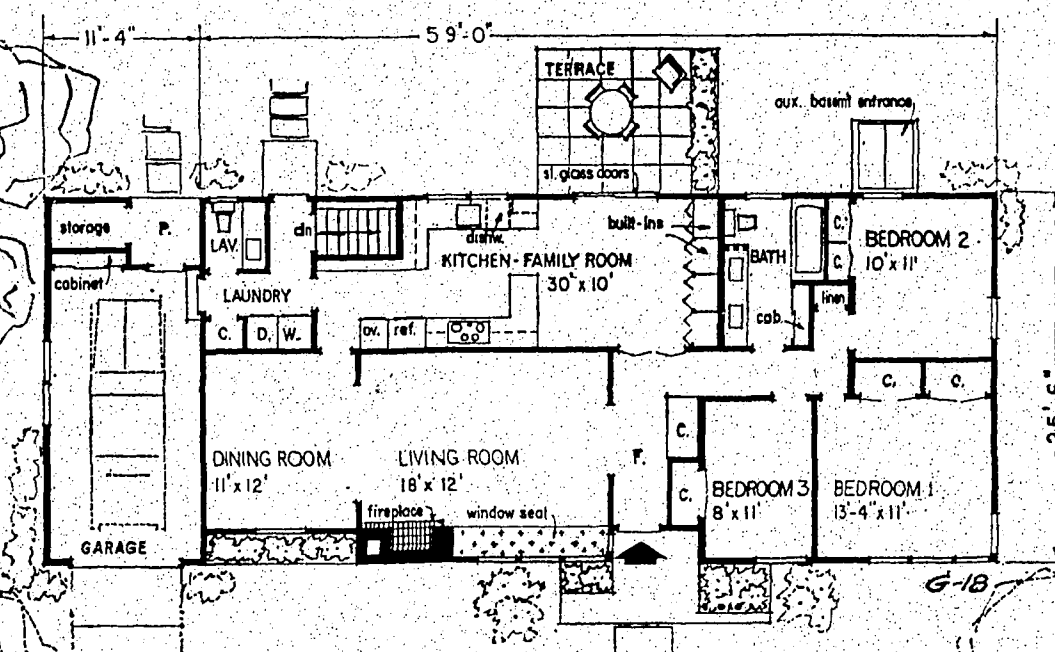

An interior detail borrowed from the traditional era by architect Rudolph A. Matern is the window seat in the living room. Pleasant informality and warm comfort are, for some reason, always associated with a window seat. This one is 11' long, providing plenty of space for several persons when the owners have the proverbial "houseful of company."

It isn't difficult, either, to picture it as a place for the youngsters to crouch and wait for Dad to come home from work.

BORROWED from the Contemporary is the storage wall in the family room. Multiple activities of the present day are organized in this long cabinet, 10' long and 2' deep. It is divided into four main sections, any part of which may be opened by itself. Bi-fold doors are used,

TRIM ONE-STORY . . . Although of a simple rectangular design, which cuts building costs, this three-bedroom ranch has been given a homey, welcoming appearance by well-designed entryway and excellent placement of planters and bedroom window box.

FLOOR PLANS . . . Spaciousness is the order of the day in the floor plans of Design G-18, with the living room and dining room providing a wide sweep at the front of the house, and the family room and kitchen doing the same at the rear.

Year's First New House Permit Taken

The year's first permit for construction of a new house was issued last week at the city engineer's office.

The $11,000 permit was drawn by Wyliss Larson, 553 W. Mark St., for construction of a 24-by-50-foot house with attached garage and gas-fired hot water heating at 505 High Forest St.

This was one of two permits taken during the first week of the new year.

THE OTHER went to Winona National & Savings Bank for remodeling of the former Kelly Furniture Store building at 218 Main St.

Bank president S. J. Kryzsko said that the work will involve remodeling of the building to allow for use of the rear portion as a covered parking facility for bank customers. A wall is being constructed to divide the front from the rear areas. Parking will be provided in the rear area with access from the alley between the bank and the building and an exit opening on 8th Street.

There will be some remodeling of the front portion to accommodate an as yet unnamed tenant.

Cost of the work was estimated at $1,500 and the contractor is WMC, Inc.

Boys Find 200 Dynamite Sticks

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Two 11-year-old boys found what they thought were "hot tamales". Demolition experts said the tamales were 200 sticks of dynamite — in a very unstable state.

Police Sgt. J.F. Armstrong, a demolition expert, said an impact of one pound could have set off the dynamite and added: "I don't know why those kids didn't get blown up."

Mark Hardy and his cousin, Steven Stanley, found the sticks in a wooden box stored in an abandoned shack 100 yards from their homes Sunday. Their parents called police when the boys brought some sticks home.

Officers placed a guard at the shack and said the rest of the dynamite would be removed today.

Wilson Has New Terms For Rhodesia

LONDON (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Wilson is reported preparing new terms to offer the rebellious Rhodesian government. The Rhodesian regime is reported ready to negotiate.

Wilson flies today to Lagos, Nigeria, in an attempt to convince restless Commonwealth members that his Rhodesian policies are in sight of success.

Peter Bessell, a Liberal member of the House of Commons, returned from Rhodesia and said that Prime Minister Ian Smith is ready for new negotiations with Britain. Bessell said three other British lawmakers who visited the central African territory with him agree that talks should be opened quickly to prevent the collapse of Rhodesia's economy.

Wilson was expected to tell the conference of Commonwealth prime ministers today that the Rhodesian economy is being badly hurt by the oil embargo and the ban on tobacco and sugar trade imposed by Britain.

He was not expected to disclose his terms for a settlement yet. They would be announced within two or three weeks, sources said.

Wilson may also tell African leaders he is ready to turn up the heat on the white minority regime with tougher penalties that could include a ban on all trade.

Since Smith declared Rhodesia independent Nov. 11, Wilson has resisted African demands to go beyond economic sanctions and use Britain's military might to crush the rebellion.

Government sources say that other Rhodesians are ready to form a government in cooperation with the British, replacing Smith's regime. However, news dispatches and reports of some

Wolverton Store Robbed of $1,200

WOLVERTON, Minn. (AP) — Thieves were messy but effective when they broke into Mel's Fairway food store here and escaped with a safe containing about $1,200 in cash and checks.

Wilkin County authorities said they thought the break-in Friday was the work of two men and two women, strangers who had been seen in front of the store Thursday night.

The thieves broke glass in a door while trying to pry it open with a crow bar, wheeled the 800-pound safe to the back door on a grocery cart after knocking off the dial, and left a crow bar and tire iron behind.

Dark-Haired Girl Sees Mason Off

LONDON (AP) — Actor James Mason, leaving London for Los Angeles Friday, got an affectionate farewell from an attractive dark-haired girl. They walked arm-in-arm, embraced, and kissed.

She refused to tell newsmen who she was, saying, "Ask Mr. Mason."

Later the actor said she was Leonarne Young, an actress and singer.

Mason was divorced 14 months ago from Pamela Kellino, who had been his wife for 22 years.

Cold Week Predicted; Little Snow Expected

Another cold blast slammed into Winona this morning, carrying the temperature down to one below after a balmy Sunday afternoon in which the thermometer had climbed to a comfortable 35. It was only 5 above at noon.

The pleasant winter weather Sunday had drawn a rink full of skaters to Lake Park in the afternoon. Others took to skiing and tobogganing on the nearby hills.

COLDER AND mostly fair tonight is the forecast for Sunday.

Partly cloudy and warmer is the forecast for Tuesday when the high is expected to be 20-25. Warmer with no important precipitation is the outlook for Wednesday.

Despite the predicted Tuesday warmup it'll be a pretty cold week with average daily temperatures through Saturday 5 to 10 degrees below normal daily highs of 19-24 and nighttime lows of 1 below to 7 above.

SCATTERED LIGHT snow or snow flurries are expected about Wednesday and possible again late in the week, averaging .1 of an inch (melted) or less.

From Saturday noon to Sunday noon the temperature range here was 30 above to 11, and from Sunday noon to this noon 35 to —1.

A year ago today Winona's high was 3 and low —12. No snow lay on the ground. All-time high for Jan. 10 was 50 in 1928 and the low —30 in 1881. Mean for the past 24 hours was 18. Normal for this time of the year is 16.

Minnesota highways generally were in good winter driving condition but with passing lanes icy and secondary roads having snow-compacted spots.

THE WISCONSIN Traffic Patrol said all Interstate systems were in good winter driving condition. It said all other main roads were in good condition except in the Hurley area where highways were now packed due to high winds. The patrol said strong winds were general throughout the state.

Northern Minnesota again was the coldest spot in the nation with Bemidji registering —17, International Falls —16, Hibbing —13 and Duluth —12.

At Rochester the morning low was —2 after a Sunday high of 32. La Crosse posted figures of 1 above and 37 for the same times.

BITTER cold weather embraced Wisconsin today and the chill was emphasized by icy winds.

The temperature plummeted to 14 below zero at Superior during the night. And there other sub-zero readings as an Arctic front passed through the state, riding strong northwestward.

Park Falls had 7 below zero, Eau Claire and Wausau 5 below, Green Bay 2 below, Madison and Lone Rock 3 above, Milwaukee airport 6 and the Beloit-Rockford area and Racine 9.

SOME snow flurries accompanied the passage of the cold front and there was considerable blowing and drifting this morning in the northern sections.

Daytime temperatures Sunday warmed considerably under the influence of southwesterly winds. In the south temperatures were generally 10 to 15 degrees above the seasonal normals.

The state high was 45 at Beloit. Others included Lone Rock and Racine 41, Milwaukee 40, Madison 39, Green Bay 32, Eau Claire 30, Wausau 29, Park Falls 25 and Superior 24.

THERMAL, Calif., had the nation's high of 77 Sunday.

Nason on Education

Should State U's Charge Tuition?

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.
University of Southern California

Everyone worries about the cost of a college education: the college authorities, parents, students and, last but by no means least, taxpayers.

Added to higher operating costs per student is the pressure of greater numbers clamoring for admission. The needs of society demand increased education for all. Consequently, every qualified high school student is urged to go to college if he possibly can.

At present, only about half the qualified students actually reach college. And of those who enter, too large a percentage fail to continue on to graduation.

And yet, can we afford to continue to provide tuition-free education?

Stock Market Prices Rise Irregularly

NEW YORK (AP)—Airlines, electronics and coppers were among gainers in an irregularly rising stock market early this afternoon.

The market advance was having tough going because traders were taking profits with the averages at the peak of a string of new highs made last week.

Aerospace defense stocks also were firm to higher as Viet Nam fighting continued on a fairly large scale.

Gold-mining issues had a rally following publication of a report that about a billion dollars worth of newly mined gold was absorbed by private hoarding or speculation in the first three quarters last year.

Stock Exchange Closing Earlier

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Stock Exchange announced today that it will continue to close at 2 p.m. EST, instead of 3:30 p.m., because of the transit strike.

It closed early last Thursday and Friday.

Steels put on a wavering performance and motors were thoroughly scrambled. Rails were strong.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon were up .9 at 365.0 with industrials up 1.1, rails up .8 and utilities up .3.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .67 at 986.80.

Anken Chemical advanced 7 1/2 to 29 on a delayed-opening block of 110,000 shares. The company plans to market a relatively low-priced picture-in-a-minute gadget.

Prices advanced in heavy trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate and U.S. government bonds were mostly unchanged.

Heat canned pears in a little of their own syrup with lots of grated lemon rind; serve the warm pears topped with vanilla ice cream and chocolate sauce. Call the dessert Pears Helene.

Grant: 'I Know I'm Going to Send It (Contract) Back!'

By GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Editor

Minnesota's merry minstrel warbled his way across the Winona High School auditorium stage Sunday then headed his caravan back to Chicago and what he expects to be an unpleasant session with the mails.

Mudcat Grant, a 21-game winner (plus two in the World Series) for the American League champion Minnesota Twins, is asking for $50,000 for the coming season. That is no secret. It is just as well known that Twins president Cal Griffith has said Grant can continue in show business if he expects to get $50,000 for his pitching.

Contracts went in the mail today.

Does Grant expect to mail his pact back minus signature? "Do I expect to send it back?" he chuckled. "I know I'm going to send it back. Until he's ready to talk $50,000, we have nothing to talk about. It's a question of how much value you place on yourself. Until he can show me I'm not worth $50,000, I won't sign for less. And I don't think he can convince me."

But though Grant appears to hold a firm mind on the issue, you know he expects to be pitching for the Twins come the '66 season.

His whirlwind show business career will halt in time for him to make spring training Feb. 21.

But before that time he will have played in Chicago, Toronto, Montreal, Boston and New York in addition to Minnesota and Wisconsin cities.

Does his trek with "The Kittens" make him feel he could leave baseball for a career on the stage?

"It's been real good," he said. "Let's say I'm not complainin'. And I've said if I don't get the right kind of contract, I'd stick with it."

But the Mudcat does not carry it off all that well.

Clad in light blue suit and shirt accented by a yellow tie, the 6-0 righthander showed the afternoon crowd of less than 100 that he was in shape by hoofing it through the grand finale with the other four members of the song-and-dance troupe. He did it again for another small evening gathering.

And he also proved an adept public relationist, joking through intermission and visiting with the people in folksy good humor as the show was delayed after a quick early-afternoon rehearsal.

He also proved he had a commanding knowledge of the sport at which he makes his living.

These were his answers to the following questions:

Did you feel the Twins had a chance at the pennant as early as spring training?

"Yes, we definitely felt we could win. This team felt it could win the pennant the year before last, but things went wrong."

What role did you feel you would have to play in the pennant race?

"I knew I had to be one of the starters. I assumed (Jim) Kaat could win 18 or 20 and (Camilo) Pascual could win 18 or 20, so it was up to me to do the rest. I never think in terms of 20 games. I think more of giving my best effort. If I give my best, I'm satisfied."

What was the difference in Sam Mele this year?

"Actually there was no difference in Sam. The big thing was he went to spring training knowing where we had to improve. And last year he insisted on improvement."

Did pitching coach John Sain and third-base coach Billy Martin make as much difference in the team as we've been led to believe?

"Definitely. Billy made the team aware of the little things. He taught them little things add up. John, more than anything else, got some respect for the pitchers. We had heard so much about 'if the Twins had the pitching, they could win the pennant.' John stopped that. And, of course, he taught me a new curve that helped tremendously."

Can the Twins repeat?

"I'm not going to say we will repeat. We can, we have the material. But the overall balance of the league now is becoming so much better that it is going to be very difficult. This made us a champion last year. Suddenly Washington and Kansas City weren't as easy for the top teams to beat. It made a difference."

Where will the top challenge come from in '66?

"I'm thinking in terms of Cleveland. And, of course, Baltimore. Then, too, the White Sox are always going to be tough because of their pitching and the Yankees should be back in there."

COLTS HAMMER DALLAS 35-3 IN PLAYOFF BOWL

Matte Attack? Stays In

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Tom Matte, who almost quarterbacked the Baltimore Colts into the National Football League championship game, led them to a 35-3 victory over Dallas Sunday in the consolation tilt. The performances pose for Coach Don Shula the problem of what to do with Matte next season.

"I don't know," said Shula. "I guess I'll have to keep the Matte offense in our play book, though."

Matte, in only his third professional game as quarterback, was voted the outstanding player in the playoff game before 65,569 in the Orange Bowl. He earned the award on his passing.

When he was first rushed into the quarterback breach because of injuries to John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, Matte had a slim repertoire of plays, mostly running. Still the Colts defeated Los Angeles 20-17 and in a playoff for the Western Conference title lost 13-10 in overtime to Green Bay.

Matte passed 17 times against the Cowboys, completing seven. Two of them went 15 and 20 yards to Jimmy Orr for touchdowns. Two more of 37 and 52 yards set up second period touchdowns which gave Baltimore a 14-3 halftime edge.

The Cowboys, who tied for second place in the Eastern Conference by winning five of their last seven games, ran into a fierce Colt defense.

Dallas put together only one sustained drive on the passing of Don Meredith in the second quarter. The Cowboys reached the Colt four with a first down but were stopped in their tracks and Danny Villanueva kicked a 12-yard field goal.

The Cowboys reached the Colts 29 in the first period and the 31 in the third for their only other threats. They lost the ball on an interception by Jerry Logan the first time and on a fumble recovered by rookie end Roy Hilton the other time.

Bob Hayes, the Olympic sprinter who had caught 13 touchdowns passes during the season for the Cowboys, was restricted to four catches for 24 yards.

In addition to his interception, Logan recovered a fumble on the Dallas 25 in the third quarter and fullback Jerry Hill plunged for a touchdown five plays later. Hill also boomed three yards for a second quarter touchdown after catching a 52-yard rocket from Matte.

End John Mackey's catch of a 37-yard pass from Matte set up Baltimore's first touchdown — a six-yard run by Lenny Moore — after a scoreless first period.

"I had a lot of respect before for Matte," said Shula, "but he has gained a lot more the way he reacted to our situation."

The 6-foot, 205-pounder had been a substitute halfback until the Colts for five seasons until the quarterback crisis developed.

The victory by the Colts underscored mastery of Western Conference NFL teams over the Eastern this season. It was the 15th victory in 16 contests for the West.

NIC Eyes First Test of Power

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Northern Intercollegiate Conference has its first test of basketball power Saturday night when Bemidji State plays at St. Cloud State.

The Beavers, 7-1 for the season, won their NIC opener over Moorhead State, 56-45, last Friday. St. Cloud will open its conference schedule against Bemidji, but is 10-4 in non-conference games.

Winona State joined Bemidji and Mankato in a three-way tie for the early NIC lead by whipping Michigan Tech 69-62 in the only conference game Saturday. Mankato had beaten Tech 91-68 Friday night for its conference win.

Bemidji plays at Concordia of the Minnesota Intercollegiate Conference, while Moorhead hosts Minnesota - Morris in the only games involving NIC teams tonight.

In the MIAC, St. Thomas continues at the top of the heap, now sporting a 4-0 conference record and 11-3 over-all mark. The Tommies ripped Macalester 68-44 Saturday night, while defending champion Augsburg evened its record at 2-2 with a 73-65 win over Hamline. Concordia dropped Gustavus Adolphus 74-68 and St. John's defeated St. Mary's, 74-65.

Dan Hansgard and Dick Lapentti each got 16 points and Mark Miller 15 in St. Thomas balanced attack. Dick Kelley had 20 and Ron Nelson 18 for Augsburg, while Al Frost counted 23 for Hamline.

Bob Laney topped five Concordia players in double figures with 16. Al White collected 28.

for Gustavus.

St. Olaf and Carleton tied for Midwest Conference lead on 3-1 records. The Oles beat Grinnell 84-67 and the Carls downed Cornell 71-53.

In non-conference action, Bethel riddled Northland 112-75 and Morris walloped Wahpeton 103-75.

The Detroit Red Wings, who went eight years between National Hockey League championships, now have their eyes on a second straight title.

The Wings moved into a second-place tie with Montreal Sunday night, whipping the Canadiens 4-2. It completed a weekend sweep for Detroit, which downed Toronto 3-1 Saturday.

Elsewhere Sunday, Boston snapped a six-game losing streak with a 3-1 victory over New York and first-place Chicago whipped Toronto 5-3. On Saturday, New York outlasted Chicago 6-4 and Montreal blanked Boston 6-0.

Detroit broke an eight-year drought by taking the NHL crown a year ago but Sid Abel's Red Wings seemed to go sour at the start of this season. They were buried in the NHL cellar after the first 15 games.

But Detroit has won 16 of 20 since then and now trails front-running Chicago by only three points.

Hudson Is Likely for Michigan

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Out of the disappointment of Saturday night's 85-65 loss at Michigan State in the Minnesota Gophers' Big Ten basketball opener came some encouragement for the future.

Scoring ace Lou Hudson suited for the game with the Spartans and may possibly play this Saturday night when the Gophers entertain Indiana at Williams Arena.

Coach John Kundla said Sunday that Hudson may be able to play by Saturday, but more likely will be available for Minnesota's game at Michigan Jan. 22.

Kundla said Hudson surprised him with the improvement he made the past week while playing with a lighter cast on his right wrist to protect a broken thumb bone.

"I doubt if he can play this week," Kundla said, "but I'm hopeful he can help us at Michigan."

Absence of Hudson was emphasized Saturday night at East Lansing. The Gophers led 53-50 early in the second half as Archie Clark staged a phenomenal shooting performance in the first half.

Then Clark cooled off under close guarding by the Spartans' Stan Washington, and Minnesota fell out of sight.

"We ran out of gas in the second half," Kundla said. "They outshot and outrebounced us in the second half. We've got to get more balance. One or two players can't carry a team."

MURPHY will replace George Hoder at center and Ludden will get his first start against a man-to-man defense in place of Tom Keenan.

"It really isn't a case of Keenan not doing the job," said Wiltgen. "But we just haven't been smart. Denny is a pretty smart kid. Maybe we need someone like him in there."

In Hoder's case, it is because of disappointing play.

While he scored 15 points against St. John's, the man he was responsible for guarding, Joe Mucha, got 23.

But Hoder was not solely responsible for the loss. It was a case of generally poor defense that cost the Redmen.

"Right now, we're not a good team," said Wiltgen. "We had no defense Saturday. We shot well enough to catch up the second half, but we couldn't stop anything on the other end of the floor."

IT'S ABOUT time we start thinking we're just a normal team that has to work like heck to win," he said. "We haven't proved one thing yet — and now we're really in the soup."

St. Mary's, which has stuttered through its first three loop games, lost a golden opportunity to gain on the pack Saturday night when Gustavus was beaten by Concordia 74-68. Then, too, the Gusties meet St. Thomas (4-0) tonight.

"We could have been right back in there," said Wiltgen.

Perhaps the Redmen have been a victim of the schedule, meeting three of the top league teams in their first three games.

"But that's basketball," the coach pointed out. "St. John's is a good team, but we should have won."

That also is the case for tonight. Wiltgen knows little of

Palmer Nips Losing Jinx

LOS ANGELES (AP) — There's no better way to start a new year than by winning, especially if you've been losing.

Arnold Palmer was the author of this sentiment today, and he brought the point into sharp focus by starting 1966 off with first place — and $11,000 — in the 40th annual Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament.

Palmer headed for the Palm Springs desert country today for some television golf work and most of his fellow pros took off for the next event on the new winter schedule, the $45,250 San Diego Open coming up this weekend.

Palmer won the Los Angeles fixture for the second time, but it wasn't as easy as most everyone had figured in Sunday's final round at the Rancho Municipal course — par 36-35-71.

He shot a two-over par 73 and won by three strokes with a 72-hole total of 273.

Palmer's sensational 62 Saturday sent him into the final round with a lead of seven strokes over Bill Casper Jr., and nine shots over two rivals who, it developed, gave him a large scare. Paul Hanev and Miller Barber.

It was still Palmer by six after the first nine holes, but Hanev particularly was closing in and Arnie's army, and possibly Arnie himself, were worried.

At the 14th Palmer's lead had melted to one over Hanev and two over Miller.

But as matters turned out, Barber's 67 matched that of Hanev, and they tied for second at 276.

SALUTE . . . Winner Arnold Palmer waves to the crowd after sinking a 15-foot putt for a birdie on the last hole of Sunday's final round in the Los Angeles Open golf tourney. Palmer had a 72-hole total of 273 to capture the $11,000 first place money. (AP Photofax)

Have Twins Uncovered Diamond in the Rough?

ST. PAUL, Minn. — The Minnesota Twins may have uncovered a modern-day Paul Bunyan. At least Calvin Griffith hopes so.

His name is Dave Lowery. He's 22 years old, stands 6-foot-5 and hails from the unlikely place of Johannesburg, South Africa.

Griffith is so impressed with Lowery's statistics and press clippings that he had invited him to the American League champion Twins' spring training camp opening Feb. 21 at Orlando, Fla.

"We just might have uncovered a diamond in the rough," Griffith said Saturday.

A right-hander, Lowery was brought to the Twins' attention by Fred Fray, a retired Arkansas businessman and friend of Minnesota pitching coach John Sain. Fray has traveled extensively in South Africa.

Lowery is described by the South African newspaper Rand Daily Mail as "a million dollar baseball player by American standards."

He was the leading pitcher and top hitter in the Transvaal Baseball Association, South Africa's major league, last season. He played for both the Transvaal and Crown Mines teams in Johannesburg.

Lowery won 11 of 12 games in 1965, and the league plays only a 12-game schedule. He hit .481. In 1964, he won 14 of 15 games. For the two seasons, he struck out 246 batters in 243 innings. A few years ago, he pitched a perfect game.

"Sain has forwarded a number of highly impressive newspaper clippings concerning the boy to me," Griffith said, "and I can't help but feel that the boy is richly deserving of a chance to make the grade in American professional baseball."

"At 22 years of age, I feel he must be quite mature. His size and physical attributes are outstanding. He'll receive every opportunity with our organization, and I'm eagerly looking forward to his arrival in Orlando."

Bangor Plays Trempealeau

A full round of games in the tightly bunched Coulee Conference headlines a slim round of high school basketball action Tuesday night.

And the feature attraction of that round will be at Trempealeau where league-leading Bangor takes on the Bears.

Bangor, with a 7-1 season record and 6-0 in the conference, will try to complete the first round of conference action undefeated. Trempealeau, on the other hand, is 6-2 for the year and 4-2 in the loop, tied for third with Holmen.

Both teams rely on fast-break offenses, and in Trempealeau's small gym the score may amount to National Basketball Association proportions.

The top nonconference battle in Minnesota sends Houston, leader of the Root River Conference with a 5-1 season mark, to Lanesboro of the Maple Leaf Conference teams hold a 17-1 edge over Root River teams in inter-league play this season.

Past coming Whitehall, winner of four in a row, is at up-set-minded Mondovi. The host Buffaloes upset Menomonie Friday night 61-50.

TUESDAY'S GAME
EAST-WEST ALL-STAR GAME at Cincinnati.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Something old, something new — that's the situation in the National Basketball Association as the league pauses for its annual All-Star Game break.

Boston's Red Auerbach is the coach of the East in Tuesday night's game and his star center, Bill Russell, is a member of the team — old.

Boston is not dominating the Eastern Division in fact the Celtics are being severely pressed — new.

Sure the Celtics are in first place but only by one game over Cincinnati. Last year at the All-Star break, the defending champions led the Royals by seven games.

Both the Celtics and the Royals were idle Sunday after winning Saturday, Boston by 124-96 over San Francisco and Cincinnati by 126-115 over Baltimore.

In Sunday's action, all afternoon games, Philadelphia defeated St. Louis 127-117, Los Angeles downed Detroit 111-98 and Baltimore edged New York 130-124.

In other Saturday games, St. Louis upended Philadelphia 115-105 and New York beat Los Angeles 133-127.

year, but Rupp suddenly finds himself with a squad that has sprouted into the nation's second-ranked team with 10 victories and remains one of only two undefeated major teams.

Rupp's skills, however, do not stop at raising pedigreed basketball players.

The 64-year-old Kansas native has one of the largest farms in the Kentucky area, serves on the board of governors of the Agricultural Hall of Fame and National Agricultural Center and is in his 13th term as president of the Kentucky Hereford Association.

He also is in his 36th year as Kentucky coach, and for the ninth time the Wildcats have won their first 10 games of the season.

Rupp has done it this time with only two seniors on his starting five — Tommy Kron and Larry Conley. The other three, sophomore Thad Jaracz and juniors Pat Riley and Lou Dampier, are the big scorers on the team.

Jaracz scored 26 points Saturday night as the Wildcats made Florida their 10th victim, 78-64. They'll try to make it 11 tonight in a Southeastern Conference game with Georgia, then rest until Saturday when they take on their toughest opponent so far, third-ranked Vanderbilt.

The Commodores, led by Clyde Lee's 22 points, increased their record to 12-1 Saturday by whipping Georgia 77-63. Lee's performance gave him 1,409 career points, most ever for a Vanderbilt player. Before facing Kentucky, the Commodores play Mississippi tonight and Tennessee Wednesday.

Duke, No. 1, also is busy this week, taking on Clemson Tuesday, Maryland Thursday and Wake Forest Saturday. The Blue Devils brought their record to 11-1, downing North Carolina 88-77 as Bob Verga tossed in 29 points and Jack Marin 23.

Four other members of the Top Ten won Saturday while seventh-ranked Iowa dropped a 69-68 decision at Wisconsin. Providence, No. 6 and unbeaten Texas Western, No. 9, didn't play.

Fourth-ranked St. Joseph's, 10-2, trampled LaSalle 92-69; No. 5 Bradley, 13-1, downed Drake 64-52; eighth-ranked Brigham Young, 10-1, stopped Arizona 87-72, and No. 10 UCLA, 9-3, wallowed Oregon 97-65.

TRAVELING ILLINI NOW RANK 2-0

Road Wins Are Money in Bank

CHICAGO (AP) — Illinois might not be able to wrest the Big Ten basketball championship from such pre-season favorites as defending champion Michigan, Minnesota and Iowa. But watch out. The Illini have several factors in their favor including a 2-0 start fashioned on opponents' home floors.

Illinois tacked a 98-84 decision at Indiana Saturday to its 90-70 victory at Wisconsin last month in the only conference game played prior to Saturday's opening round.

Illinois is at home against Wisconsin Tuesday night when a victory shouldn't be too difficult.

Illini have two other Tuesday night dates this year. With most of Saturday's games being played in the afternoon, a team playing Tuesday night has a 3½ day rest compared to 2½ by teams playing Monday night.

An extra day of rest can be awfully important following an especially rugged contest in which minor injuries have been received.

Three conference games are scheduled tonight with Indiana at Michigan, Michigan State at Purdue and Northwestern at Iowa.

Aside from Illinois, Michigan was the only team to win on the road Saturday. The Wolverines downed Ohio State 83-78 behind Cazzie Russell's 32 points.

Northwestern defeated Purdue 111-97, Michigan State slugged Minnesota 85-65 and Wisconsin surprised Iowa 69-68.

Freeman, who averaged 27.7 points in preconference competition, scored 28 against Indiana. Sophomore Rich Jones carried a 22.2 average into the Indiana game and came through with a 20-point performance and junior Jim Dawson, averaging 13.8, scored 21.

After this trio, Combes has a lot of guys named Joe. However, Illinois has another distinct advantage. The fact that Illinois is playing Tuesday night instead of Monday is no accident.

Aside from Illinois, Michigan was the only team to win on the road Saturday. The Wolverines downed Ohio State 83-78 behind Cazzie Russell's 32 points.

Northwestern defeated Purdue 111-97, Michigan State slugged Minnesota 85-65 and Wisconsin surprised Iowa 69-68.

Freeman, who averaged 27.7 points in preconference competition, scored 28 against Indiana. Sophomore Rich Jones carried a 22.2 average into the Indiana game and came through with a 20-point performance and junior Jim Dawson, averaging 13.8, scored 21.

After this trio, Combes has a lot of guys named Joe. However, Illinois has another distinct advantage. The fact that Illinois is playing Tuesday night instead of Monday is no accident.

Illini have two other Tuesday night dates this year. With most of Saturday's games being played in the afternoon, a team playing Tuesday night has a 3½ day rest compared to 2½ by teams playing Monday night.

An extra day of rest can be awfully important following an especially rugged contest in which minor injuries have been received.

Three conference games are scheduled tonight with Indiana at Michigan, Michigan State at Purdue and Northwestern at Iowa.

CHICAGO (AP) — Illinois might not be able to wrest the Big Ten basketball championship from such pre-season favorites as defending champion Michigan, Minnesota and Iowa. But watch out. The Illini have several factors in their favor including a 2-0 start fashioned on opponents' home floors.

Illinois tacked a 98-84 decision at Indiana Saturday to its 90-70 victory at Wisconsin last month in the only conference game played prior to Saturday's opening round.

Illinois is at home against Wisconsin Tuesday night when a victory shouldn't be too difficult.

Hawks Score Big Victory

It sounds rather strange for a coach whose team has won two straight meets to say that his squad needed the third one badly—especially since it doesn't count toward a conference title.

But that was the feeling of Winona High School wrestling coach Dave Morasco Saturday night after his team had downed Kasson-Mantorville 25-15 in a battle of District Three teams.

"THE FIRST TWO we won were nice," said Morasco, "but the kids still weren't sure they were real winners. This one convinced them."

And it was even more convincing in the way the Hawks won the match.

Leading only 20-15 going into the heavyweight match, with a loss by a pin meaning a tie rather than a victory for the Winhawks, Winona High heavyweight Tom Becker left little doubt of the outcome when he flattened K-M's Darrell Dene in 3:34. It was Becker's first pin of the season.

improvement at 154 and 165, respectively, by posting victories.

The victory evened Winona High's record at 3-3. The Hawks next competition will be Friday night when they host St. Charles. The "B" squad will wrestle at 6:30 p.m. with the varsity at 8 p.m.

And another bright note on the Winhawk scene was a 28-22 victory by the Winona High B squad. The Little Hawks had come close against Red Wing Friday night before tumbling 26-21, but Saturday night Ed Babler won a 3-0 decision in the heavyweight match to assure the victory, the first of the season for the Little Hawks.

No Time to Look Back for Staters

There is no time to look back for the undefeated Winona State wrestling team, although it would be a nice view.

The Warriors, winners of their first six dual meets, face three more tests this week in the toughest week of the season. "It's going to be busy," said WSC coach Bob Gunner with humor in his voice. "River Falls should be stronger than they were last year. Mankato will be gunning for us because we knocked them off last year, and Marquette is the best team in Wisconsin next to the University."

THAT'S THE bill of fare that faces the Warriors, coming off a sweep of three matches Saturday in a triple dual at Memorial Hall.

Wednesday the Warriors are at River Falls, Thursday they are at Mankato, No. 1-ranked among NCAA small colleges and Saturday at Marquette.

Saturday Winona State ripped Michigan Tech 37-3 and Wartburg 32-7 in afternoon matches before facing their toughest test of the season in a night match. The Warriors whipped Western Illinois 22-9 in that match.

"Actually it was the first time we've been held to less than 30 points this year," said Gunner. "The thing is, we couldn't use our freshmen against them, so we couldn't use our starting lineup."

"BUTCH MYHRE (of Mabel) did a real fine job at 130, although he's only a 115-pounder, and Steve Baird did a fine job at 160 although we're trying to get him ready to wrestle at 130. It was a real pleasing victory."

Myhre lost a 7-0 decision and Baird took a 4-2 decision in their matches.

In other matches Saturday, Wartburg smashed Michigan Tech 34-6 and lost to Western Illinois 22-13. Western also drubbed Michigan Tech 31-7.

Following the triple dual, Winona State still has two unbeaten and untied wrestlers and four more who have only a tie scratching their records.

Heavyweight John Zwolinski and 137-pound Perry King each have won six matches. All six of Zwolinski's victories have come by pins. Saturday he took a total of three minutes and five seconds to pin three opponents. Leo Simon (145) and Ray Wicks (167) both have 5-0 marks, while Merle Sovereign (152) and freshman Jim Tannehill (160) are 4-0-1.

Oshkosh has taken over the position of Stout's closest pursuer in the Wisconsin State University Conference basketball derby, but the Blue Devils' grip on first place remains unshaken.

Oshkosh grabbed second with a dramatic scoring outburst midway through the second half to down its rival, La Crosse, 94-78 Saturday night.

Platteville, beaten the previous night by Stout 57-54 in the closest challenge to the Blue Devils so far, shares third with River Falls and La Crosse after beating Eau Claire 89-79. River Falls turned back Stevens Point 65-53 Saturday night.

Superior and Whitewater, each seeking its first WSUC win, tangled to escape the cellar with the Yellowjackets romping to a 96-81 decision.

Stout took a holiday Saturday night and will be idle until it meets defending champion La Crosse this Thursday. Platteville journeys to Oshkosh in the week's top battle Tuesday night.

For Goodhue, Tom Gorman sank 19 points with 14-point help from Greg Lodermeier and 12 from Bob Buck.

Pennel Goes 16-7 1/4 for New Vault Record

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An American record in the most spectacular event sends the 1966 United States indoor track season off to an auspicious start, thanks to a man with an aching back.

Veteran John Pennel pole vaulted 16 feet, 7 1/4 inches Saturday night as the final competitor in the third annual Examiner Invitational meet to erase the 16-6 record set last year by Billy Fernelton.

The 25-year-old AAU champion, who says a chronic back ailment continues to give him trouble, cleared the height on his third try to the full attention of the Cow Palace audience since all other events had been completed.

Although he sailed over the bar with height to spare at 16-7 1/4, he missed three times going at 16-9 in a bid to surpass the world's best—a 16-8 1/2 effort in 1963 by Finland's Pentti Ni Kula.

Two Kansans with speed and stamina highlighted the running events. Nineteen-year-old Jim Ryum won the mile in 4:02.1, clipping 3.5 seconds off the Cow Palace record, and John Lawson upset Gerry Lindgren in the two-mile with 8:40.4, a meet record.

WCHA Title to Be Decided in Michigan Now?

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It looks like the Western Collegiate Hockey Association championship may be decided in the state of Michigan this season.

At least that's where the balance of power lies at the moment, following weekend sweeps of two-game series by Michigan Tech at North Dakota and Michigan at Minnesota.

Tech, leading the WCHA with a 6-0 conference mark, nipped the Sioux 2-1 and 4-3 to establish itself as the team to beat once more.

Michigan, now second with a 3-1 WCHA record, downed Minnesota 5-4 and 3-1.

Just to keep up its end of state prestige, Michigan State bounced Colorado College 6-2 to drop the Coloradoans out of second place. CC had won Friday night over the Spartans.
